

Meeting your complex oral solid dose needs from Freiburg, Germany

Simplifying your OSD's pathway to commercialization

Our state-of-the-art facility in Freiburg is ready to meet your evolving OSD needs with simplicity in scale and scope. Offering end-to-end product and process development from lab and pilot to full manufacturing scale and flexible production to support small and large volumes, we're ready to help you at every step of your journey.

Capabilities

- Capability from pilot to commercial scale
- OEB 1-5 containment
- Continuous manufacturing technology
- Portable continuous miniature and modular manufacturing
- Reliable global delivery to more than 185 markets
- Primary and secondary packaging
- One of the world's largest manufacturing and packaging sites, spanning ~ 150,000 m2

Our commitment to sustainability

- ISO 14001 and ISO 50001 certified Energy Management Systems
- 90% renewable energy sources
- A comprehensive energy management system and greener manufacturing processes
- Solar thermal air regeneration for room conditioning in production areas for coating and tablet/capsule inspections

Dosage form flexibility

- Low dose
- Single and dual dosage forms
- Combination products
- Immediate/extended-release

Expertise

- Flexible volume manufacturing
- Leading packaging technologies
- Global delivery to more than 185 markets

1300

dedicated experts to support you

250+

product formulations

3500

SKUs

4.5bn

tablets and capsules manufacturing capacity per year

Discover how you can benefit from our decades of experience successfully delivering high-quality OSD products.

Get in touch with our experts